I. Anti-Corruption Work.

As a result of enquiries held, action was taken as follows :—

Sri G. V. Gopalaswamy, Radiographer, was ordered to be dismissed from service on charges of receiving illegal gratification and cheating Government.

Sri Nanjundiah, Shanbhogue, was dismissed from service on charges of drawing an amount in excess of the actual amount paid by him to the coolies who were engaged for road construction work, etc., and misappropriating it. It was also ordered that a sum of Rs. 192-12-0 be recovered from him and that he be removed from Chairmanship of the Village Panchayet.

The services of Sri Kolandaswamy, Foreman, Central Tractor Workshop, Hebbal, attached to the Agricultural Department were ordered to be dispensed with on charges of receiving illegal gratification in both kind and cash.

The services of Sri Lingiah, Depot clerk, were ordered to be dispensed with due to shortages of rice and sugar detected in the depot and the value of the shortages (about Rs. 308) was also directed to be recovered from him.

The services of Sri L. Narasimhachar, Acting Director of Archæology, were ordered to be terminated on charges of fabricating false vouchers and attesting forged thumb impressions, etc., and it was also ordered that a sum of Rs. 2,347-6-0 be recovered from him.

The services of a temporary Assistant Food Inspector, Sri Rachappa, were ordered to be terminated for his gross negligence in not taking action to verify the stocks in a Government Reserve Depot.

Sri T. V. Krishna Murthy, Shanbhogue, was ordered to be removed from the Shanbhogi Office on charges of misappropriating Government money, etc.

Sri G. Hiranniah, Police Inspector, was ordered to be retired from service on charges of receiving illegal gratification, etc.

Sri Seetharamiah, Head Master of a Government Primary Boys' School, was retired on charges of having exacted bribes from Assistant Masters and Mistresses of the School.

For misuse of V. P. funds, Sri D. V. Puttaswamy, clerk of the Taluk Office, was placed under suspension for a period of one year, and the pay of Sri T. Narasimhiah, Nagadi Gumastha, was reduced by one increment. In that connection a warning was administered to Sri Abdul Subhan, Treasury Sheristedar.

Sri Thimmiah, Shroff, Taluk Office, was reduced as Gollar on Rs. 30 for a period of two years for receiving illegal gratification.

The pay of Sri N. S. Krishna Rao, Senior Health Inspector, was reduced by one increment for giving scope to interested parties to commit forgery, etc.

Increment of Sri K. Krishna Sastry, District Horticultural Inspector, was withheld for a period of one year for misappropriating Government money.

In the case of Sri S. Mahabaliah, Head Clerk, Tarikere Municipality, his increment was postponed by one year for false identification, etc.

The pay of Dr. A. Niranjanraj Urs, Gejjalagere Health Unit, was reduced from Rs. 135 to Rs. 120 on charges of fraudulently drawing certain sums of money and misappropriating the same; and he was also directed to make good a sum of Rs. 234.

The pay of Sri K. Parthasarathy, Assistant Engineer, and Sri E. V. Thyagaraja, Section Officer, was reduced by one increment on charges of obtaining false vouchers, etc. The Assistant Engineer was further ordered to make good a sum of Rs. 79-14-0 considered as having been misappropriated.

The pay of Sri M. R. Nagaraja Rao, Inspector of Schools, was reduced from Rs. 114 to Rs. 96 per mensem on charges of having received illegal gratification as reward for showing official favour to his subordinates, etc.

The pay of Sri K. T. Kollarappa, Clerk of the Revenue Department, was reduced from Rs. 62 to Rs. 50 and it was further ordered that his increments be withheld for two years on charges of receiving illegal gratification, etc.

The pay of Sri Abdul Khader, Clerk of the Education Department, was reduced from Rs. 48 to Rs. 40 on charges of receiving illegal gratification.

The pay of Sri Doreswamy, Attender, Bowring Hospital, Bangalore, was reduced with a severe warning for receiving illegal gratification.

The pay of Sri Krishnamachar, Police Constable (vacancy Reserve) was reduced as he was found guilty of preferring false T. A. claims.

On charges of receiving illegal gratification, Sri Sheik Mahaboob, Revenue Inspector, was reverted to the ministerial line.

Sri Krishna Rao, Special Sheristedar, was ordered to be reverted to his permanent post for gross negligence in not having evinced sufficient interest to safeguard the interests of Government.

Sri S. Venkataramiah, Assistant Engineer, and Sri Sharanappa, Surveyor, were fined Rs. 100 and Rs. 25 respectively, for not discharging their duties properly.

Sri Syed Masum, Veterinary Inspector, was ordered to pay rent for the period of his unauthorised occupation of Government premises.

Sri G. V. Sivanna, Police Inspector, and Abdul Rahman, Daffedar, who travelled in Government Transport bus, were suitably warned, the former for not surrendering his bus warrant to the conductor until he had practically reached his destination and the latter for travelling in the bus without obtaining a ticket.

The license of Sri C. D. Muthooswamy, a ration shop keeper, was cancelled as he was proved to be an unscrupulous dealer indulging in anti-social activities.

In regard to the employment of convict labour in the premises of most of the officers of the Central Jail, Bangalore, it was directed that all irregular and improper use of convict labour should be discontinued and that strict instructions should be issued to the prison staff that any violation of the rules of the Jail Manual in this behalf would be very seriously viewed by Government in future.

A test-purchase was arranged in respect of illicit sale of toddy in a prohibited area and cases were got registered against five persons by the local Police in that connection.

Action was taken in respect of six private buses, nine lorries and one van for infringement of the provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, and also in respect of six Government buses for non-issue of tickets and other irregularities.
